

American Midwifery Certification Board

Confidentiality Affidavit For AMCB CMP Committee Members/Staff

I hereby affirm that I will not discuss or in any manner communicate confidential information that I may encounter while transacting business on behalf of the American Midwifery Certification Board (AMCB) to persons not on the Certificate Maintenance Program (CMP) Committee unless they are specifically employed by the AMCB to assist with such matters (i.e. staff, Board of Director, CEO, legal counsel, or members of the same committee). Confidential information includes, but is not limited to, the contents of the Module tests (past or current forms of the tests), public sharing of articles, information related to the scoring of individual Modules, accounting records, and any communications marked “confidential”, including designated portions of BOD meeting books or minutes.

Furthermore, should I discover a breach of security; I will immediately contact the AMCB President and relay complete and detailed information regarding the incident.

All documents must be signed in the name that certification was issued.
